

You are in the Ḥaḥahuuṭi of the Ditidaht, Huu-ay-aht and Pacheedaht First Nations

By entering into our Ḥaḥahuuṭi (traditional territory) you must acknowledge and respect our Indigenous governance and stewardship responsibilities to decide what is best for our lands, our waters, our resources, and the wellbeing of present and future generations of Ditidaht, Huu-ay-aht and Pacheedaht people.

All visitors to our Ḥaḥahuuṭi must not interfere with forest operations authorized by the BC Government under the Forest Act. Equally, visitors to our Ḥaḥahuuṭi must not interfere with peaceful, legal protests that do not disrupt legally authorized forest operations.
